

AFIEROSSIS 20th & 21st century works for cello solo Michael Heupel – cello	ARS 38231	PC: 01S
	1 SACD-Hybrid 2017
(Empty space for additional information)

The bond created by the dedication between a piece of music and its dedicatee is sacred. On this recording Michael Heupel collected a range of more or less well-known works for solo violoncello from the 20th and 21st centuries where each work bears its own dedication – to a performer such as Mstislav Rostropovitch, to a politician such as György Aczél, and even to a fictional character like Alexander Knight.