Charles-Camille Saint-Saëns WORKS FOR PIANO DUO VOL. 3 Vilija Poskute – piano Tomas Daukantas – piano	ARS 38244	PC: 01S
	1 SACD-Hybrid 2017

The French composer, pianist, organist, conductor and music critic Charles-Camille Saint-Saëns was one of the major figures of nineteenth-century musical life, a fact that was disputed until recently even in his home country. The recent increase in attention paid to Saint-Saëns' oeuvre is at least in part due to the wealth of recordings that are available today.

On the third volume of the complete recording of Saint-Saën's piano works, Vilija Poskute and Tomas Daukantas play pieces by the composer as well as authorized and self-edited orchestral works. Many first recordings turn this volume in a true musical expedition.
