Solo violin and choir – a combination like a blank sheet of paper. On TOUCHED BY THE STRINGS, contemporary composers – Ola Gjeilo, Vytautas Miškinis, Knut Nystedt, John Høybye, and others – have supplied their answers to the question of how these protagonists can be brought together. The internationally renowned violinist Ida Bieler and the Orpheus Vokalensemble conducted by Michael Alber demonstrate the compositional range with impressive sensitivity and with a great variance of sonority.
