Even more than Antonio Bertali (1605-1669), Samuel Capricornus (1628-1665) is one of the composers of the 17th century, whose oeuvre is barely or only little discographically accessible. The Capricornus Ensemble Stuttgart rediscovers his works and shows that the music of the Stuttgarter Hofkapellmeister (Capricornus) can easily match the quality of the music of the Viennese Hofkapellmeister (Bertali).
