Porky is lively and light-hearted, Rosa is a dreamer and Rüssel has a sense for the practical things in life. In this fairy tale, which originated in England, the three little pigs set out to seek their fortune in the big wide world. But the bad wolf has it in for them. Will Porky, Rosa and Rüssel manage to escape the bad guy? Only together and with trickery can they overcome this difficult challenge. King Carrot, on the other hand, is a carrot with a quirk, a crazy root that lives in its fantasy world and bends reality until it suits it. He wants everyone in the garden to dance to his tune. But the other vegetables don't let him do that and so conflicts arise. In the version by master arranger Andreas Tarkmann, who wonderfully interweaves text and music, both stories become great audio cinema with feeling, drama and a happy end.
