The grand man of Estonian music, Maestro Neeme Järvi, is probably one of the best known Estonian musicians in the world and since 2010 he has again been chief conductor and artistic director of the Estonian National Symphony Orchestra. ERP dedicates the sixth edition of the 'Great Maestros' series to the conductor, who is celebrating his 80th birthday this year and also looking forward to an ECHO Klassik. The program of this CD includes works by Brahms, Britten, Mahler and Weber; Kalle Randalu plays the piano.
