Louis-Antoine Dornel SUITES FOR TRAVERSO	GCD C80806	PC: 01H
	1 CD
Wilbert Hazelzet	1999

In another moving recording from Glossa's treasure trove from the late 90's, flutist Wilbert Hazelzet teams up with his usual collaborators Jaap ter Linden (cello) and Jacques Ogg (harpsichord) to bring us a selection of pieces from Louis-Antoine Dornel, a shadowy figure of the French Baroque active at the end of the reign of Louis XIV and the beginning of Louis XV. Brian Berryman provides the second traverso and the very informative booklet notes.
