

Franz Liszt PIANO CONCERTO NO. 1 SONATA IN B MINOR TOTENTANZ Benedek Horváth – piano Sinfonieorchester Basel Hans Drewanz	PROSP0007	PC: 01S
	1 CD	2019

Already through his birthplace Budapest, Benedek Horváth (*1989) feels very close to his 'fellow countryman', the great virtuoso and cosmopolitan Franz Liszt. Important stages of his career are inseparably linked with this name and the interpretation of the visionary's piano works has kept him busy since his early years of study. Horváth completed his soloist diploma at the Basel Music Academy and received important artistic impulses from András Schiff, Dimitri Bashkirov and Menahem Pressler. He was a finalist at renowned competitions such as the Concours Clara Haskil in Vevey. In 2018 he was awarded the 'Junior Prima', one of the most important cultural prizes in Hungary.